DARE TO BE THE BEST

ROKEBY ROCKS ROYAL DOCKS!

To kick off the 2015-16 campaign, the Year 11 football team visited Royal Docks for a pre-cup friendly on Wednesday 9th September. This was always going to be a challenging start as the teams drew last year 4-4.

After a frantic and physical first 5 minutes, Royal Docks took the lead 1-0 with a well-taken goal on the counter-attack. However, the lead was short-lived as Rokeby equalized through a calm finish from Daniel Disubi.

From this moment on, Rokeby looked to take control in the midfield through the trio of Ruben, Darnell and Calvin. This was demonstrated in the team's second goal before half-time which involved a flowing move from the edge of our own box with a lung-busting run from Calvin to tap in at the opposite end of the pitch. Good work from Michael Delgado and Daniel Disubi set up the opportunity.

In the second half, Rokeby turned on the style on the counter attack, with more well-taken goals from Ruben and Daniel.

The defence looked excellent throughout with top performances from the goalkeeper, Harees Azam, and the centre-back pairing of Yoan and Herculano.

An excellent all round team performance and a thoroughly well deserved 6-2 victory away from home.

Come on Rokeby!
