

Essex Cup – Champions of The Champion #rainbowlaces

Essex Cup 1st round vs. The Champion School (Hornchurch)
Wednesday 21st October 2015

After a shock loss to Kings Langley on penalties in the first round of the English Schools Cup, the year 11 team bounced back in style in the first round of the Essex Cup with a visit to The Champion School in Hornchurch.

With an opening period of good possession, we fell behind to a well taken headed goal at a set piece from the home team against the run of play. The Year 11 team never one to panic when under pressure, kept true to their passing game and with the last attack of the half played in England star Daniel Disubi for a one-on-one chance, which he duly slotted under the onrushing goalkeeper. 1-1 at half-time.

After a spectacular save from our in-form keeper, Ruben Cabral, the ball was played in to our midfield maestro, Darnell Bromfield duly who blasted a shot into the top corner from distance. I believe young people today would refer to this as “top bins”. After another couple of majestic saves from Ruben, Michael Delgado turned on the style up front adding the finishing touches to a well worked team goal for his first, and finishing the second with a powerful header. It finished 4-1 to Rokeby and we are through to the second round to play Shoeburyness School, however, before that we have George Green School in the first round of the London Cup on Wednesday 4th November. Keep up the good work boys and also keep showing our support to Stonewall through our #rainbowlaces campaign.

Mr. Perry

Yowit/Rokeby Debate 2015—Women in Transport: London

Next Tuesday (10th November) our debating team is competing in the Transport for London 2015 Debating Tournament. This year Transport for London are celebrating ‘100 Years of Women in Transport’ and 25 schools across London are participating in this unique debating program. If our boys proceed through to the final 2 schools they will face off against another finalist in the House of Lords this December.

Ebbsfleet United's Shilow Tracey has been offered a trial by Tottenham Hotspur Football Club.

The 17-year-old midfielder will spend a week training with the Premier League club.

Shilow has been attracting interest from several professional clubs but Ebbsfleet manager Daryl McMahon was keen to make sure the opportunity was right for his player. During his time as a Rokeby student, Shilow was known to be a respectful, determined and well behaved student.

We wish him all the best in his career.
