We are looking for a reliable and enthusiastic teaching assistant to join the Inclusion department as soon as possible. Experience of working with students who have behavioural and/or learning difficulties would be an advantage, but qualities such as awareness of students' needs and commitment to supporting young people are equally important.

At Rokeby it is our aim to get the best out of every student, because of this we put teaching and learning at the centre of all aspects of our work. Our vision is based upon clear and concise values: Respect, Success, Passion for Learning, Personal Challenge and Harmony. In working towards instilling these values in every student we strive to provide a safe, healthy, stimulating and exciting environment for all. Our students are our greatest asset. They are motivated, articulate young men who deserve the best that we can offer them.

We are keen to appoint dedicated colleagues who are eager to support our students to achieve in all aspects of their school life and who want to be key contributors to our school's success.

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The successful applicant will need a full DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) check, which can be applied for once a job offer is made.

Further details and an application form can be downloaded from the TES website, Rokeby's website (www.rokeby.newham.sch.uk), or www.londonschooljobs.co.uk.
